The word 'resurrection' does not mean a restoration to one's previous life, as happened to Lazarus, the widow of Nain, and Jairus' daughter. It is not resuscitation. It is something infinitely more.

The word 'resurrection' designates a quantum leap forward into a new life. It is something no human being had yet experienced.

In other words, the body of Jesus that rose on Easter Sunday was radically different from the body that was buried on Good Friday. St. Paul compares a body before and after resurrection to a seed and the plant that emerges from it.

He says:

"When the body is buried, it is mortal; When raised, it will be immortal. When buried, it is ugly and weak; When raised, it will be beautiful and strong. When buried, it is a physical body; When raised, it will be a spiritual body."

1 Corinthians 15:42-44 (TEV)
