

On April 30, 2000, as he canonized Blessed Faustina, John Paul II named the Second Sunday of Easter as "Divine Mercy Sunday." The Pope explained that this day is "the Sunday of Thanksgiving for all goodness that God has shown us in the whole of the Easter mystery."

Peace be to you!

Doubt no longer, but believe

The Feast of the Divine Mercy sums up Lent and Easter, proclaiming mercy as the perfect fruit of the whole paschal mystery of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

I love the story of Peter's failed fishing expedition.

One day, he told Jesus, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing." In fact, they've been fishing the whole night and couldn't even catch a skinny shrimp.

But Jesus told him, "Lower down your nets one more time. But lower it at the deeper part of the sea."

In my language, Jesus was saying, "Don't give up. Hustle."

And when he did as Jesus told him, Peter received abundance. He caught so much fish, the Bible says their nets began to break and their boats almost sank at the weight of the fish (Luke 5:5-7).

Friends, if you want a blessing from God, you don't give up. You do whatever it takes to get it. Do what you have to do one more time, but do it in different way. Go deeper. Go higher. Go lower. Just do it.

You know what our problem is?

When we fail, we automatically think we're losers.

No, we're not.

You can never be a loser because you come from God.

Because of that fact, you're a champion.

Always!

Fr. Dennis Remot

APR 23-SAINT GEORGE FEASTDAY

Little is known about George, who was killed for his faith in Palestine at the beginning of the fourth century. Believed to be a soldier in the Roman army, he was involved in the organization of a Christian community at Urmiah (modern Iran), and visited Britain on an imperial expedition. During the reign of Edward III (14th century), he was made a patron of the kingdom. George is also patron of several Mediterranean and European countries and cities, and the Boy Scouts.
