

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time: August 17th

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Romans, "God's gifts and his call are irrevocable." To what is God calling me today? What gifts are mine to share? See Romans 11:29

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time August 24th

In today's reading, St. Paul reminds the Romans – and us – that all things come from God: "For from Him and through Him and for Him all things are." Good stewards understand that all is gift and share generously the gifts of time, talent, and treasure with which they've been blessed. See Romans 11:36

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH :

Without sunlight, the earth would die. Each night we expect the dawn and welcome the sun at its rising. Jesus is the true light. John's Gospel tells us:

In the beginning was the Word:
The Word was with God
And the Word was God....

The Word was the real light
That gives light to everyone.

Jesus, we bask in your light be listening to your word. Then we can feel your sun fill our life, so that it overflows in charity for all of suffering humankind.

Thank you, God, for the light of your Word, Jesus. Amen.
