

Like Mary and Joseph,
we must trust in God, in one another, and in ourselves.

What we prepare to celebrate on Christmas is God's presence among His people.

Dear SEARCH family & friends,

This letter is to inform you that I am stepping down from my position of Director of the Archdiocesan SEARCH retreat program effective November 27, 2016. I am in a season of my life where I can no longer devote the time and energy required of an effective leader in this ministry space. I am, however, very excited to be pursuing new adventures growing my family and taking on the next challenge the Lord has for me.

I want to take a moment to sincerely thank you for the opportunity to be a part of our SEARCH program over the last eight years - I have enjoyed the challenges that have arisen in developing the program and have truly been blessed by everyone I have met and served with along the way! I don't think a simple note like this can convey how much of a place that SEARCH has in my heart!

For all information, questions or concerns moving forward, please contact Jennifer Foley as she will be taking over the role of Director. She can be reached on the SEARCH email at archsearch.sk@gmail.com.

Please continue to keep Jenn, our Spiritual Director team and our SEARCH team in your prayers as we move through this season of transition. May you have a blessed advent season, and I hope it isn't long before our paths cross again!

Peace & Blessings,
Monica Hunt
