Search for Christian Maturity February 25-27 at Vanier Collegiate in Moose Jaw. All youth from 15 to 21ish years are invited to a fun-filled, faith-expanding, life-changing weekend, however we have taken Adult Searchers in the past. Application forms are at the back of the church or register on line at www.search.inthedeemer.com. For further information contact Monica Shenher at 371-5853 or archsearch.sk@gmail.com or to register contact Lamont Dyck at search.inthedeemer.com.

It is our 55th Search since this ministry started in this Archdiocese in 1978!

Please pray for Caydin Shawn, son of Ashley and Trenton KARST, WHO WAS BAPTIZED AT ST. GEORGE'S ON SAT., FEB. 12TH. MAY THE GRACE

OF THE HOLY SPIRIT HELP HIM AND HIS FAMILY TO GROW IN HOLINESS AND FAITH.

The pope's intentions for Feb. are for the family.

"The family is the domestic church. In it parents should, by their word and example, be the first preachers of the faith to their children..." ; "That the family may be respected by all in its identity and that its irreplaceable contribution to all of society be recognized." This is a little prayer from Feb. edition of The Word Among Us:

We pray for every Christian family. Jesus, strengthen families so that they may be faithful to the Sacrament of Marriage and cultivate an environment of love and communion. Make each family a small, evangelizing community, and give each Christian family a sensitivity and openness to the many needs of others, both material and spiritual. Amen.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sir 15:15-20 / 1 Cor 2:6-10 / Mt 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

I can be particularly poor at the process of making choices. The choices themselves aren't bad—it's getting there that's the challenge. I try on an item of clothing multiple times before finally buying it. And don't give me a lengthy menu at a restaurant if you expect to eat any time soon—I'll spend half the night choosing between all the good options.

The readings today speak clearly of the wisdom needed to make choices. People I consider wise are able to discern which choices are important and which are not. They know what's significant in life and what's not. They know how to pick their battles. Wise people have learned that choices about clothing, dinner entrées, and even many political or theological issues aren't significant enough to warrant lengthy focus and attention. The important choices are those highlighted in today's reading from Sirach—the choices of life and death, of good and evil—how we live in fidelity to God's wisdom and call to us.

As the clearest revelation of God's wisdom, Jesus presents examples of the choices we face in living lives faithful to God. More is expected of us than simple obedience to the letter of the law. Not only should we not kill, but we also should choose not to harbor anger. Not only is adultery sinful, but lustful thoughts are just as problematic. Jesus calls us as disciples to do more than expected, more than the status quo.

Though challenging, these expectations call forth wisdom from us—to set aside the unimportant choices about which we spend so much time fretting and focus on the choice that really matters: the choice to follow the Lord.
