It was in the silence of the night and of the desert that Samuel and John heard the voice of God. Let us too, in the silence of our hearts listen and respond to your voice.

God our Father, speaking through the prophets in a long unending line you have revealed your love for us. We ask you to listen to our prayers and to give us the grace to live as you would want us. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Service hosted this year at / by St. George's Wednesday, January 24th at 7:00 PM in our church. ALL churches welcome.

Assiniboia and District Pro-Life meeting - Tuesday, January 23, 2018, at the Messiah Lutheran Church, starting at 7:30 p.m. All who are interested are welcome to come to see what pro-life is doing and to share your ideas. One thing we will be doing will be starting to plan the spring banquet which will be on Sunday, May 6, 2018.

Thirty years ago this month the Supreme Court struck down the federal law regulating abortions, making it possible for women to get an abortion for any reason. This is a time when those who are concerned take time to reflect on the lives lost because of abortions. They also wear a Green Ribbon to show their concern. Green ribbons will be available at your church on the week-ends of January 21 and 28. Also there will be some other information you can take. Please take and wear a GREEN RIBBON to show you care about lives lost through abortion. Please pray for an end to abortion, for mothers facing a difficult or crisis pregnancy, and for those organizations that help in these situations.

There are also other issues relating to pro-life and family for which we urge your prayers, attention, and reflection. These include assisted suicide and attacks on the traditional family. Please pray for the true prophetic witness relating to these issues and witness to the truth on these matters. Please wear a GREEN RIBBON to show you care.

You can order PAPAL BLESSINGS through Fr. Dennis / Parish Office for events such as special birthdays, wedding anniversaries. Contact us, allowing plenty of time, as they come directly from Rome.

“New Week, New Goals”.

Come And See

▷ Invitations come in many shapes and sizes. Some come in the mail or in e-mail. Others come on the street corner. Others come in ways unexpected. Some are personal, almost intimate. Others are general and impersonal. No matter their shape or size or means, invitations ask us the same question: why don't you come and see?

▷ Why do we come? What do we seek? The early disciples of Jesus must have asked themselves those questions. Despite a culture that distrusted novelty, they would come and see something new. The public appearance of the Messiah.

▷ A simple invitation can be life-changing. Come and see . . . That invitation can come in different ways, from a letter or a look to a simple act of unselfish love. Come and see . . . When we invite others to faith, we ask them to encounter the One after whom we pattern our lives. Come and see . . . the Lord. He will show us the loving way to live and he will give us a new identity as a Christian. He will show us the way to the Father. Come and see . . .

Let us hold in prayer the family and friends of the dearly departed, especially: Yvette Philippon and Del Bergeron.

May all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace! Amen.

PRAYER:

Lord, teach us that here on earth
You have no voice but ours
To preach the good news of Jesus to others,
To share the message of why you lived, suffered, and died for us.
You have no heart but ours
To embrace the lonely.

Help us spread that good news
Not only by our prayers
And by our material resources
But also by our personal word and example.

Lord, teach us that here on earth
We are, indeed, your hands;
We are your voice;
We are your heart.
