Stewardship Corner :
Your Faith in Action

The Eucharist is "a stewardship meal" and the entire liturgy is a stewardship experience. We are given the Word; we receive the Word. We present our gifts and ourselves. Through the Eucharist, we receive the gift of Christ himself; we become one with Christ. Stewardship is how we respond and share that gift. It is an everyday occurrence. To find out more about stewardship, see : www.dscatholicfoundation.ca/parish-stewardship-resources

The Special Intentions of Pope Francis

Dear Heavenly Father, during this month we pray that you bless all those from diverse religious traditions and all people of good will, that they may work together to produce real peace in our world. Lord, we also pray that during this year dedicated to consecrated life, you would renew all religious men and women with the joy of following Christ. Fill all in the consecrated life with zeal, especially as they strive to serve the poor.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 Sm 3:3b-10, 19 / 1 Cor 6:13c-15a, 17-20 / Jn 1:35-42

When I started in campus ministry, I was fortunate to meet a wonderful priest who had worked with college students for many years. I watched him carefully on Sundays and at student gatherings, picking up valuable information about how to talk to students, conduct myself professionally, and bring out the best in others and in myself.

Over the years we worked together, I observed many campus ministers—young and old, lay and ordained—seeking him out for advice and counsel. I referred more than a few. I also enjoyed our conversations and nearly always left our meetings with more wisdom than when I started.

I wonder what Andrew and the other disciples thought when John called Jesus “the Lamb of God.” Whatever it was, they must have seen in Jesus someone who could answer their questions or give them something they were lacking. Maybe they saw a person their teacher admired and decided to seek his wisdom for themselves.

Whatever it was, something compelled them to follow Jesus, and Jesus’ own invitation to “come and see” whetted their curiosity and desire even more.

Today we might call that the impulse of the Spirit, who draws us to Christ even when we’re not sure why. The challenge for us is to have the courage to follow Jesus, ask where he’s staying, and walk with him even if we can’t see where it will lead us.

Our desire to stay with the Lord is, in itself, our comfort and our joy.
