Good News!

January 19, 2014

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Is 49:3, 5-6 / 1 Cor 1:1-3 / Jn 1:29-34

When I was ten, my teacher decided to call me by my first name, Mary, rather than by my family name, Kathy, part of my middle name. My teacher felt we should honor the Blessed Virgin by calling me Mary. The name Katharine had been in my mother's family for years, and she liked its strength. It was an abrupt switch, but like many children, I quickly got used to responding to either name—and sometimes to both.

Names tell us something about a person. Today's Scriptures speak to the singularity of the Incarnation by talking about names people gave Jesus. The early Church looked through the sacred Scriptures of the Hebrew Bible and realized that Jesus was like the figure in the prophecies of Isaiah, so they came to know him as servant (one who does God's will), covenant (a promise between two parties), and light to the nations.

Paul calls him Messiah (Christos in Greek) and Lord. And John refers to him as the "Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world" and the "Son of God."

We haven't yet been able to articulate the fullness of who Jesus is. We believe he is fully God and fully human and that he came out of love for us to save us from sin and death. In our attempt to understand that, we've given him many names. Each reveals a little more about who he is for us and who he is with God.

What is your name for Jesus now, and what does that mean to you?
