Good News!

January 26, 2014

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Is 8:23—9:3 / 1 Cor 1:10—13, 17 / Mt 4:12—23 or 4:12—17

In the upper Midwest, where I live, deep winter sets in around mid December, and generally it gets really cold at the beginning of January. That's followed by two or three months of more clouds than sunshine, more wind than calm, and days when the cold seems to go right through all outerwear.

Sometime in the last two weeks of March, after weeks of gray and gloom, there comes a day that holds all the promise of glorious summer. The sun shines, the sky is blue, and the temperature suddenly soars to sixty degrees—or even seventy. Neighborhood streets and lakeside paths are filled with folks just glad to be alive. We suddenly realize why our ancestors worshiped the sun.

“The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light.” Isaiah and Matthew knew the power of light shining in darkness, but for them, it wasn't the sun. It was the Word of God piercing a world in which power and greed seemed rampant, that Word becoming incarnate in Jesus, calling all to conversion.

I don't think it's an accident that Matthew recalls the words of Isaiah just before he records the call of the disciples. Perhaps light is what Peter, Andrew, James, and John saw when Jesus walked by their boats and called them into new lives as his disciples. It was light that made them drop everything to follow him. Jesus is our light, too, and he's never stopped calling us to follow him.

Maybe it's time to come out of the dark ourselves.
