BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST

The Eucharist was prefigured at Cana, promised at Capernaum, instituted at Jerusalem, and celebrated at Emmaus. The Eucharist is not an ordinary meal, but a sacrificial meal.

JUNE 7, 2015: CORPUS CHRISTI: At Communion time, when the Eucharistic minister holds up the Eucharist and says to you, “The Body of Christ,” make a special effort to realize what you receive.

It’s the living body of Jesus. It’s the same Jesus who was born in Bethlehem for us. It’s the same Jesus who died on the cross for us. It’s the same Jesus who rose from the dead for us.

When we think of it this way, the Eucharist is so incredible that it’s almost impossible to imagine. Only a loving God could have given us such an incredible gift.

OptionS Pregnancy Campaigns

The 2015 OptionS Pregnancy campaigns run from Mother's Day, May 10, 2015 to Father's Day June 21, 2015.

All funds raised go to the OptionS Pregnancy Center which provides a place where woman can come and not be judged for being in an unplanned pregnancy. The Center strives to let the woman know she is valued and cared about no matter what her choice. At OptionS they have found that a woman can make a better decision for herself and her baby when she realizes her self-worth. The outreach program provides services to women in southern Saskatchewan and Regina area.

Your financial contribution through our 2 campaigns will continue to help us reach the lives of women in Southern Saskatchewan with truth, compassion, and informed choices about their pregnancies.

The 24 Hour Support Line:

TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Ex 24:3–8 / Heb 9:11–15 / Mk 14:12–16, 22–26

I used to dream about the kind of house I would live in when I grew up. I wanted gracious, rooms, a large kitchen, a family room and—for reasons passing understanding—I wanted a stream running through the house with a waterfall somewhere in it. The house I actually live in was more than 100 years old when we bought it. It needed a boiler, a roof, and a new bathroom within the first year.

The rooms were small; the kitchen had no drawers. There were no closets on the first floor. But it was ours and we raised our family in it. The smallness of the house did not seem to matter to our children's school friends who regularly visited, knew they could call us if there was an emergency, and could count on a full bowl of fruit salad (strawberries, blueberries, kiwi, and grapes) in the refrigerator.

It would have been easy to have complained about the difference between the dream and the reality. My husband and I might have argued about getting a bigger home. But we realized that "home" was not about the building; it was—and is—about the community and relationships inside.

Had the love not been there, we might have even become divided over the flaws. I like to think that our marriage and family were blessed with the grace to see what was important. I know that in a world of poverty, we were privileged. But I believe that having each other and sharing our faith was our strength and our foundation, and would have been even if we had lost everything.
