Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: June 12th

Like Nathan in today's first reading, we sin when we begin to feel entitled and act as if what we have is ours by right, when we forget that everything we have is an unmerited gift from God. But God is gracious and forgiving – even when we use His gifts wrongly or squander them thoughtlessly – if, like Nathan, we confess our guilt and ask His pardon.

Ask and it shall be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and it shall be opened to you.

For all the parish:

Pope Francis has spoken a lot about Year of Mercy and our call to practise the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, one of which is to feed the hungry.

The Salvation Army food bank is in need of help. They need cash donations and non perishable items - canned vegetables, canned meats, fruit and soup (check expiry dates). Items can be dropped off in the church entrance for the next couple of Sundays and CWL members will deliver it. Cash donations can be dropped off at the S A store. Thank You and God bless.

Today's Reflection :

All of us – fathers, mothers, sons, daughters, yes, even grandfathers and grandmothers – tend to do what Simon did.

We tend to do what the mother of the boy did.

We tend to jump to conclusions.

We tend to prejudge others – even our own family members.

And so today's gospel is an invitation to imitate Jesus.

It's an invitation to follow the teaching of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, when he said:

“Stop judging, that you may not be judged. For as you judge, so will you be judged.” Matthew 7: 1-2

.....
Please pray for Colby Jones Mercer, son of Cody Mercer and Shelby Jonescu, who was baptized at St. George's on May 15, 2016. May the grace of the Holy Spirit help him and his family to grow in holiness and faith.

Baptism of Children

I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

Let's close with a poem.
It talks about how wrongly we can judge others.
It is so easy to jump to conclusions and judge by appearances, rather than by what is in the heart.

"I dreamed death came
the other night,
and Heaven's gate swung wide.
With kindly grace
an angel ushered me inside;
and there to my astonishment
stood folks I'd known on earth;
and some I'd judged
and labeled unfit of little worth.
Indignant words rose to my lips,
but never were set free;
For every face showed stunned
surprise.
Not one expected me."
