The Bias of Fathers

One day, I was at a Christmas party.

And parents were forcing their small kids to sing, bribing them with lollipops to banana splits to doll houses to a Disneyland vacations.

One father – a friend of mine whose name I won't divulge as it would be hazardous to my health – brought his little five-year-old daughter to the front.

Because he even had a Minus One prepared, we thought, "She must really be a good singer." So everyone clapped their hands and cheered as the music started.

Then the five-year-old began to sing. Or at least made some kind of sharp noise. But she didn't get one key right. The cute little girl was absolutely tone deaf. From beginning to end, she sounded so awful, the experience was similar to having an endoscopy without the anesthesia.

But the father was right beside me, still taking photos, still smiling from ear to ear, his eyes glued to his little daughter. He looked at me and smiled, "She may not sound right, but can you see how lovely she sways her hips?"

That's how God sees us: When we mess up, He'll still look for something good to look at and celebrate that part of us.

I've met people who have a terrible image of God. They believe God does nothing else all day but catch them in their sin. Thus, they too think of nothing else but their sin.

So I tell them: God sees your goodness before your garbage.

Like God, don't focus on your weakness.

Focus on the goodness He created within you.

He doesn't see a failure. He sees His champion. Fr. Dennis Remot

A BLESSING FOR FATHERS

God is the giver of all life, human and divine.

May He bless our fathers, who, along with their wives, are the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith.

May they be the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what they say and do, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

A BLESSING FOR GRADUATES

May God the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit shower all graduates with blessings. As they move toward new beginnings, as they enter new doors of opportunity, as they encounter new friends in new settings, may God be with them.

May they always choose what is right and good and true. May their faith and love never cease to deepen and grow.

May God always be at their side and in their heart. Amen.

The 2017 OptionS Pregnancy Bouncing Baby Bottle Campaign & Bouncing Baby Shower are both running right now ... to JUNE 25, often Mothers Day to Fathers Day ... All funds raised go to the OptionS Pregnancy Center which provides a place where women can come and not be judged for being in an unplanned pregnancy. The outreach program provides services to women in southern Saskatchewan and Regina area. Services are free to clients. The center is a non-profit organization. The 24 Hour Support Line: 306-757-3344. After Mass, please pick up your baby bottle for collecting money . Also please place your new and gently used baby items for newborns to 2 yr olds in the bassinet. THANKS !

Africa and Yemen Famine Relief Fund: The Canadian government announced that they will match funding for every donation made by an individual to a registered charity between March 17th and June 30th.

Our Catholic Bishops have joined other faith groups in a joint appeal that is “a unified cry from the heart, with one voice and one message.” Development and Peace has been responding for some time now and has good information on their website about the joint appeal, the situation on the ground, what is being done and how to donate. Please consider learning more and donating on-line at www.dev.org/en or by calling 1 888 664-3387.
