Greetings Folks!

As you know, this summer will see millions of young Catholics gather together in Krakow, Poland to celebrate World Youth Day. It is obviously not possible for all young people to join this gathering, so in order to address this reality, the Archdiocese of Regina is presenting "World Youth Day at Home" on Sunday, July 31st from 10-4. It will be held at Holy Child Parish Hall in Regina, and is open to those in grades 7 and up, has a cost on $25/person or $50/family and will be a day to celebrate faith and mercy with other young people. Please see attached poster for further details and registration information. Blessings! Michelle Braden

The Assiniboia Knights of Columbus will be reimbursing $100.00 per Child's Camp Lemieux Registration who attend camp. You must produce receipt to Treasurer Walter Agopsowicz 306-642-4106. Catholic Camps ONLY.

Things we need to know about Pope Francis' Annulment Process

An annulment (formally known as a "declaration of nullity") is a ruling that a particular marriage was null from the beginning—that is, something was gravely wrong at the time the wedding vows were made and it prevented a valid marriage from coming into existence. This is different from a divorce, which proposes to dissolve a marriage that is in existence.

Annulments are important issues in our Church. Jesus Christ expressly taught that if two people divorce and then remarry, they are committing the grave sin of adultery. He taught: "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery" (Mark 10:11-12). Because of this teaching, the Church cannot simply give divorced people permission to remarry. To do so would be to give them permission to commit adultery.

Consequently, if a divorced person wishes to remarry, the Church needs to examine the first marriage to see if it was valid or not. If it was valid, then the person is still bound to his or her previous spouse and cannot marry another person. If it was not valid, then the parties to the first marriage are not bound and so, unless something else affects the situation, they are free to marry other people. The number of people in our society who are divorced makes this a pressing pastoral problem.

Annulment is a complicated subject, but in simplest terms, the rules governing annulments are expressed principally in the Code of Canon Law. When a man and a woman have divorced, they can contact the appropriate diocese and have their marriage investigated to see if it was valid. This process could be simple or lengthy, depending on the nature of the case and the forms of evidence available. However, Pope Francis, in line with the year of Mercy, has done something to make this process shorter and more efficient. More information on what Pope Francis has done about the annulment process will be written in the next issue of our bulletin.
