Third Sunday of Lent: Mar. 8th "You shall not covet" is perhaps a difficult commandment to keep in our consumer-oriented society. But as Christian stewards, we know that we are the recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. May this understanding that all is gift help us be less resentful of the gifts of others.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE –

Responding to the cry of the rural poor with the bishops of Brazil

“ In all places and circumstances, Christians, with the help of their pastors, are called to hear the cry of the poor.

This has been eloquently stated by the bishops of Brazil: “We wish to take up daily the joys and hopes, the difficulties and sorrows of the Brazilian people, especially of those living in the barrios and the countryside – landless, homeless, lacking food and health care – to the detriment of their rights.

Seeing their poverty, hearing their cries and knowing their sufferings, we are scandalized because we know that there is enough food for everyone and that hunger is the result of a poor distribution of goods and income. “

– Pope Francis, The Joy of the Gospel, 191.
DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE has been working with the Brazilian bishops for many years to respond to the cry of the poor.

Your generosity helps fund our partnership with their Pastoral Land Commission, which works to support the rural poor through agricultural development and land reform. You can learn more about our work by picking up Share Lent materials at the back of the Church or by visiting devp.org. The Share Lent collection for DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE is on the Fifth Sunday of Lent, March 22nd.

Ex 20:1–17 or 20:1–3, 7–8, 12–17 / 1 Cor 1:22–25 /
Jn 2:13–25

The license plate on a friend’s car reads “56789.” someone asked him about it, he said, “Those are the mandments I’m good at.” We all had a laugh but, in the commandments bear deeper reflection.

To pretend that our obedience of the Ten Comrments is limited to the literal words themselves is sally shallow. We may not have killed someone, but we ever thought how much better it would be if son weren’t in our workplace or school? Have we ever someone with a passion that interferes with our act

We may not have stolen something from a retail but have we ever taken anything that doesn’t belc us—ideas, supplies from work? These don’t belong Are there ways in which we really want what a frier or fail to remain faithful in body, mind, and spirit Ten Commandments impact us far more than we re

In today’s gospel, Jesus demonstrates how fa moneychangers in the temple area have strayed from true spirit of the worship of God. They probably l given it much thought—it was the way they’d always business. But their action made things difficult for o

God demands a transformation that deals not only the wrong everyone can see, but with the subtle wa violate God’s laws and fail to love.

The middle of Lent is a good time for us to exam and repent of—all the ways in which we do this.
