Pastoral Reflection: 2nd Sunday of Lent- Matthew 17,1-9 - Memories

Beautiful memories are our source of strength. Peak moments and times of clarity are the backdrop against which we compare low moments and times of confusion. When a mother argues and fights with her teen-aged daughter, it would be good to recall the times she was a baby, a toddler, and a lovely pre-teens girl. When a father brings his drug-crazed son to a rehabilitation center, memories of him as a loving and healthy boy could strengthen his resolve. A priest or a religious in the midst of a vocation crisis may find comfort and courage by going back to memories of his initial calling and initial attraction to the religious life. It would be well for a politician, a policeman, or a teacher who has reached a low point in his life and has become caught up in a system of corruption to go back to memories of his youthful idealism when all he wanted to do was to serve. .

The apostles Peter, James, and John experienced such moment of revelation on the mountain of transfiguration. They were transported to new heights of awareness. It was an undeniable experience, "We ourselves heard this voice come down from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain. (v.18)." This was the importance of the transfiguration in the life of the three apostles. It was an inspiring memory. The good news is that we too can have our moments on the mountain. The Lord Jesus can reveal Himself and His will for us in a unique and clear manner. It is a gift given to those who persevere in prayer and who take the time to allow God to reveal Himself. Although the experience of closeness to God is a gift, we too have to prepare ourselves for it. We have to find a place (not necessarily a mountain). We have to spend time to quiet ourselves. In fact, our own homes, in the early hours of the morning or late at night may provide the time and place.

This season of Lent is a time to go up the mountain and meet the Lord in a special way. We can prepare the ground for this meeting by accepting our frailty, acknowledging our sinfulness, desiring reconciliation, spending time for prayer, intentionally practicing some acts of self-denial acts of kindness. In His goodness and kindness we may be given the gift of experiencing the Lord in a very special way. We will experience the Lord in a new way, sometimes intensely, at other times gently. When it happens it is a memory that will always stay with us.

Lenten Holden Evening Prayer -
Every Wednesday during Lent
7:00 p.m. Lutheran Church

What is Holden Evening Prayer?

Written in 1985-86 by Marty Haugen during a musical residency at Holden Village, Holden Evening Prayer is a simple vespers service that follows traditional form while using contemporary and inclusive language. Since then, the service has been adopted around the world and continues to be used weekly at Holden Village where it is lovingly known as Vespers '86.

The Lutheran church is inviting all people to come together through participation in the Holden Evening Prayer.

Together, we seek to support and draw strength from one another, reaffirming our values as people who have been called, equipped, and sent, and supporting each other's work in environmental stewardship and justice for all people.

Lent

Prayer for the good of the soul

Fasting for the good of the body

Alms giving for the good of our neighbor
