2014 Shared Lent

“One Human Family, Food for All”

Ash Wednesday marked the launch of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE’s annual Share Lent campaign, which this year is raising awareness about the injustice of world hunger. The theme for 2013 is “One Human Family, Food for All”, the campaign calls on Canadians to fight against hunger and emphasizes the importance of small-scale farmers in the struggle for access to food for all.

As the Canadian member of Caritas Internationalis, a worldwide federation of Catholic development and humanitarian aid organizations, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE is joining Caritas’ global anti-hunger campaign, which was launched by Pope Francis in December 2013. “We are in front of a global scandal of around one billion people who still suffer from hunger today. We cannot look the other way and pretend this does not exist. The food available in the world is enough to feed everyone,” implored Pope Francis.

Food is not only a human need, but it is also a human right, yet each day that right is denied to 843 million children, women and men who do not have enough to eat. For over 45 years, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE has been working for greater social justice by standing in solidarity with communities in the Global South affected by poverty and injustice. The campaign, which runs throughout Lent and is the main source of funding for DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE’s programs in the Global South, will culminate on April 6th, also called Solidarity Sunday, when a collection will be done in parishes from coast to coast for DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE. This campaign which runs during Lent is a traditional time of sharing – a way of giving alms.

Articles and brochures will be included in the Sunday bulletins throughout Lent.

Please pray for a successful Shared Lent campaign.

Good News!

March 9, 2014

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT (A)

Gn 2:7-9; 3:1-7 / Rom 5:12-19 or 5:12, 17-19 / Mt 4:1-11

In the campus Church where I work, more people show up on Ash Wednesday than on any other day. Practicing Catholics, Catholics who are a little (or a lot) out of practice, and non-Catholics who sense the need for a period of discipline stream through the doors to remember that they are dust and into dust they shall return.

With a cross smudged on their foreheads, they go out, sensing that this defined six-week block we call Lent is a real chance to change course and renew their lives. Many of them return each Sunday to hear ancient stories and try to live into the good intentions symbolized by the ashes.

Ash Wednesday creates a framework for conversion, and the First Sunday of Lent tells us why we need it. The Genesis story is an explanation for the brokenness of the world that comes not from God's error in creation, but from our desire to be God and control our own destiny. The creature cannot be the creator. We cannot know fully what God knows. For Adam and Eve, such knowledge is power, and they aren't content with what God has given them.

In the desert, Jesus is also tempted to show his power and take control from his Father. He could refuse to subject himself to God's will. He could make bread and force God to care for him. Even more, he could give power over to one who is not God.

Instead, Jesus gives his life over to God. With his grace, we can do the same.

Where are you being tempted to push God aside and take control?
