2014 Shared Lent “One Human Family, Food for All”

Ash Wednesday marked the launch of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE’s annual Share Lent campaign, which this year is raising awareness about the injustice of world hunger. The theme for 2013 is “One Human Family, Food for All”, the campaign calls on Canadians to fight against hunger and emphasizes the importance of small-scale farmers in the struggle for access to food for all.

As the Canadian member of Caritas Internationalis, a worldwide federation of Catholic development and humanitarian aid organizations, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE is joining Caritas’ global anti-hunger campaign, which was launched by Pope Francis in December 2013. “We are in front of a global scandal of around one billion people who still suffer from hunger today. We cannot look the other way and pretend this does not exist. The food available in the world is enough to feed everyone,” implored Pope Francis.

Food is not only a human need, but it is also a human right, yet each day that right is denied to 843 million children, women and men who do not have enough to eat.

For over 45 years, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE has been working for greater social justice by standing in solidarity with communities in the Global South affected by poverty and injustice. The campaign, which runs throughout Lent and is the main source of funding for DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE’s programs in the Global South, will culminate on April 6th, also called Solidarity Sunday, when a collection will be done in parishes from coast to coast for DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE. This campaign which runs during Lent is a traditional time of sharing – a way of giving alms.

Please pray for a successful Shared Lent campaign.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT (A)

Gn 12:1-4a / 2 Tm 1:8b-10 / Mt 17:1-9

Some people get excited about moving. I'm not one of them. I don't like the boxes and the mess, and I find it hard to get settled in a new place. So I can't imagine what 75-year-old Abram thought when God told him to leave his homeland and set out for a place he'd never seen.

I stand in wonder of faith so strong that it finds the Word of God compelling with no evidence that the promises will come true. But in our long history as a people of God, God is forever waking people up or giving them a vision of a different life, usually far from where they are.

So it is with our spiritual life as well. In today's Gospel, Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a high mountain and into a vision of Jesus as the glorious Son of God. Wherever they had been in their faith, this was a radical call to move, to grow deeper, and to embrace the identity of the man they called Jesus.

Until that moment, Jesus was a compelling preacher and healer. On top of that mountain, he became the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets (Moses and Elijah represent those parts of the Old Testament canon).

When Peter, James, and John heard the words "Listen to him" coming from the cloud, they could no longer pretend this was an ordinary religious figure. They would never be the same, and the journey would lead them to the cross and beyond.

Are you being asked to move in your spiritual life? Where will that take you?
