He spoke a message of peace and taught us to live as brothers. His message took form in the vision of our fathers as they fashioned a nation where people might live as one.

This message lives on in our midst as a task for us today and a promise for tomorrow.

Sixth Sunday of Easter: May 5th

Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. "But", the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

Hope For Malawi Have you recently given up the hobby of sewing or embroidery or are you moving or helping a loved one to move? Anyone with surplus sewing goods and notions can bring them to the church and place them in the box in the church entrance during the month of May. They will be taken to Elaine and Peter Zakreski (Taste and See Breakfast Guest Speakers 2012) in Saskatoon the first week in June. They will ensure that they get to Malawi as they will be shipping a container in the fall. These goods will be used to make clothing by the women in Malawi. These are the items that are needed:

New, washable yard goods at least 1 yard in length (cotton is the best but other, cool fabric will do)

Any size of scissors – sharp and in good working order

Needles – for hand sewing and embroidery needles

Thread on spools – full or nearly full

Embroidery floss – any colour

Buttons, snaps, hooks and eyes, elastic washable ribbon or binding tape.

If you are unsure about an item, call Lorelei @ 306-263-2064. If you would like to have items picked up, call Lynn @ 306-354-7754.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29 / Rv 21:10-14, 22-23 / Jn 14:23-29

Some experiences you can have only when living with someone. You have a regular dinner companion, someone to share household responsibilities with, someone to share your day's experiences with. No matter what the relationship, it can be fantastic.

But sometimes it's not. Your parent snores loudly enough to wake the neighbors. Your roommate prefers the floor for clothes storage as opposed to a closet. Your spouse can't write "laundry detergent" or "olive oil" on the well-displayed grocery list (not that my husband is guilty of any of these...).

That's why I did a double-take when reading today's Gospel. Jesus, in his farewell discourse from John, declares that he and the Father will "make our dwelling" with those who keep God's word. The Greek word for "dwelling" is monē. It indicates that this is not temporary—it's not an overnight camping trip or a two-week can-I-crash-on-your-couch situation. Monē intends a permanent home for God with us—not over us or next to us or down the street. With us, within our very selves.

But hasn't God learned about roommates? Doesn't God know about the snoring? about our sins and our brokenness? our unworthiness and our doubts?

I certainly can't explain God's choices. I can only rejoice that God has decided to dwell with us in spite of our many flaws, foibles, quirks, and outright sin.

It's the best experience of "living with someone" I can imagine.
