The Love of God

⇒ What is the cost of love? When we frame love in this question, the subject transcends the feeling. No longer does love remain in the realm of the heart. It becomes a decision of the will. The question implies that we do not truly love unless we are willing to act upon our feelings and live with the consequences. Love may not be love without an inner emotion, but it cannot survive without action. And it cannot grow without testing.

⇒ To claim love is easy, to live love is difficult. Yet, in Jesus, we find the example of love perfectly lived out. We also find the power to live love to the fullest.

Jesus chose his followers to carry out God's plan of salvation. He chooses us today to do the same. By allowing us to participate, he gives us a personal stake in the coming Kingdom. "God ...enables men to be intelligent and free causes in order to complete the work of creation, to perfect its harmony for their own good and that of their neighbors...they then fully become "God's fellow workers" and co-workers for his kingdom." (CCC 307) Love is the best way to become his "co-worker," since it reveals the reason he made the cosmos to others and affirms our friendship with the Creator.

⇒ When have you felt the love of God? When have you past that love onto others? How did your efforts effect those you loved?

⇒ Love changes everything it touches. It denies our "bragging rights." Yet, it enhances our reputation. It denies the power of our leader positions. But it raises us up as true leaders. It might take away the advantage of our personal initiative. It, however, connects us in ways unimaginable.

Divine love transcends mere emotion. It becomes the lifeline to God. And it forms the basis of real community. It is inexplicable in theory, yet easily seen in action.

⇒ Wherever God loves, he acts. Wherever he acts, he is. HE IS with us. Simply because he loves us.

⇒ Fr. Dennis Remot

Development & Peace-Message for the week of MAY 6th

May 1: International Workers' Day

On this International Workers' Day, think of all those children, women, and men, who put their health and sometimes their lives at stake to work in mines in the Democratic Republic of Congo or sweatshops in Indonesia. Back in 1995, Development and Peace - Caritas Canada launched its People First campaign, where cards were sent to Nike and Levi-Strauss asking them to respect and reinforce codes of conduct in their overseas factories. #### May 11: World Endangered Species Day

Did you know that Development and Peace - Caritas Canada responded to the call to care for our common home that Pope Francis launched in his encyclical Laudato Si'? He teaches us that "[t]he earth's resources are also being plundered because of short-sighted approaches to the economy, commerce and production. The loss of forests and woodlands entails the loss of species which may constitute extremely important resources in the future, not only for food but also for curing disease and other uses." [ ...]. (LS, 32)

With the Holy Father's words in mind, Development and Peace - Caritas Canada launched its campaign Create a Climate of Change to combat climate change and its impact on the poorest people in our world. The Government of Canada signed the Paris Agreement in 2015, and thousands of Canadians are committed to reducing their carbon footprint.
