In the first reading, the "eleven" are the disciples of Jesus. They were twelve at first, but Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus, left before Jesus died.

.....

REFLECTION : I AM THE GATE :

Business nowadays is done in strange ways - transactions under the table or over the table, with the table as part of the grease money; big letters and fine print in a contract; secret arrangements not specified in the contract - all these do not pass through the door but climb over elsewhere. And they kill !

I am the gatekeeper. The gatekeeper keeps in and shoos out. He protects the lives of those within the sheepfold. If we want access to grace, it is necessary to know and befriend the Lord who is the gatekeeper, otherwise we better be ready with a pass or a badge for entry.

A father and a son can no longer live together because of their many differences. The son decides to pack his things and leave. On his way out of the family home, the father calls him and hands him a key. "Son," he says, "I understand we cannot live together for now. But should you decide to drop by sometime, here is the key to our house. You need not knock."

God has given us a key, a pass, or a badge to the kingdom in the cross of Jesus his Son!

When Jesus called himself a good shepherd, he meant that he was committed to his flock 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. In other words, all of his energies and concerns were for the flock entrusted to his care. Every moment of his life was dedicated to it.

12 HOURS OF PRAYER FOR PALLIATIVE CARE

In recognition of National Hospice Palliative Care Week, St. George Catholic Women's League calls all people of faith to join us in prayer and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, on Thursday, May 11.

For more information please contact Lynn Rogers (306 642 7803) or Irene Montgomery (306 642 7808).

All parishioners are invited to join the CWL in prayer and solidarity at any time from 8:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m. Those who are unable to attend throughout the day are encouraged to join in prayerful support. There will be a sign-up sheet in the entrance of the church for Eucharistic adoration to ensure that someone is present at all times, and each time can be filled with as many people as are able to come - there are no limits to the number of people who can pray. There will also be a showing of the Docu-film "Euthanasia Deception" in the KC room at 10:30 a.m. and again at 2:30 p.m. for anyone who would like to view this film. There will be a community prayer service at 7:30 p.m. to close the 12 hours of prayer and everyone is welcome to attend. Refreshments will follow in the KC room.
