Thank you to all CWL members who donated their time, talent and treasures to the 2014 Regina Diocesan Convention that was held at St. George's. Thanks to all those who were able to attend – our council was represented by 22 members and held the distinction of having the most members in attendance!! It was a very successful convention and we can be proud of our efforts – it was second to none.

A special thank you to Father Joy for his constant support and for attending and also making our guest priests feel so welcome.

Thanks also to Carol Marit and Denise Broda for their part in making our mass on Sunday so joyful with their music.

Thank you to St. George's Parish for allowing us to host this convention in our church and parish hall.

Thanks also to Rita and her crews for supplying us with tasty and nourishing meals.

Thanks to Ken for all of his help in cleaning, setting up, taking down and generally being available when we needed him.

Thank you to Paul and Angele for their help throughout the evening – it was appreciated.

Thank you to anyone else in our parish who assisted our efforts in any way – we may not even be aware of it???

We appreciate all of you! God bless.....

Your parish is seeking financial support from all parishioners and past users of our parish facilities.

The goal for this year's Building Fund drive is $40,000.00 and will take place throughout May and June 2014, however we will graciously accept donations throughout the year. You will be receiving letters and envelopes about this. Please prayerfully consider what you can give. We will accept post-dated cheques if more suitable for anyone.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (A)

Acts 2:14a, 36-41 / 1 Pt 2:20b-25 / Jn 10:1-10

On a trip to Ireland some years ago, our family was enchanted by the confident, stoic, long-haired Irish sheep. When I was still mastering the art of driving on the left side of the road, we rounded a narrow corner and came face to face with one of the sheep, who looked at us as if to say, "And you are...?" Clearly the sheep owned the road, whereas we were just interlopers. I pulled to the side and waited for the sheep to cross or move, which it did eventually, staring at us the entire time.

When we think of Jesus as the good shepherd, I think we have a different picture of sheep—docile, helpless, and eager to follow anyone who feeds them. I would prefer to think of us as Irish sheep who go where they want and look with suspicion at anything out of the ordinary. These sheep don't follow any stranger's voice; they just stare him or her down and go on their way.

On familiar ground, with the one who cares for them, they gather into pastures abundant with grass. When they finish grazing in one place, a gate opens to bring them to another, and to another after that.

"I am the gate," Jesus says. He is the one who leads us further and further into his life.

In Celtic spirituality, the open gate is an invitation to the spiritual life. Let us be good Irish sheep who are not afraid to wander far and wide, knowing our shepherd will come to take us home.

Let us follow our shepherd with confidence. He is not just the gate-keeper, but the gate itself, promising far more than we can ever find in this world.
