Ascension of the Lord: May 12th

Jesus ascended into heaven, blessing His disciples and promising that they would soon receive the power of the Holy Spirit. We who have received that promised gift of the Spirit are now empowered to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth – to use our time and talents to spread the good news of salvation.

Hope For Malawi Have you recently given up the hobby of sewing or embroidery or are you moving or helping a loved one to move? Anyone with surplus sewing goods and notions can bring them to the church and place them in the box in the church entrance during the month of May. They will be taken to Elaine and Peter Zakreski (Taste and See Breakfast Guest Speakers 2012) in Saskatoon the first week in June. They will ensure that they get to Malawi as they will be shipping a container in the fall. These goods will be used to make clothing by the women in Malawi. These are the items that are needed:

New, washable yard goods at least 1 yard in length (cotton is the best but other, cool fabric will do)

Any size of scissors – sharp and in good working order

Needles – for hand sewing and embroidery needles

Thread on spools – full or nearly full

Embroidery floss – any colour

Buttons, snaps, hooks and eyes, elastic washable ribbon or binding tape.

If you are unsure about an item, call Lorelei @ 306-263-2064. If you would like to have items picked up, call Lynn @ 306-354-7754.

FEAST OF THE ASCENSION / SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 1:1-11 / Eph 1:17-23 or Heb 9:24-28; 10:19-23

Lk 24:46-53 or Acts 7:55-60 / Rv 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

Jn 17:20-26

I wouldn't have done well at the Ascension.

Sure, I'd have followed Jesus and listened intently. But instead of bowing in homage, I would have waved my hand urgently, asking, "What do you mean 'it is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established?'" I really need to know when the Spirit will be sent. I have a very busy schedule, so a more specific time would be particularly helpful, Jesus, sir."

I can imagine Jesus simply shaking his head, unsure of what to do with this particularly challenging follower.

For those of us who like to plan and schedule our lives in precise detail, the Ascension presents some challenges. He promises the Spirit will come—but he doesn't say when, how, or what that will mean. It's an in-between space, and I'm not a big fan of those.

We often have these in-between moments—waiting for a diagnosis, looking for a new job, seeking healing in a relationship. They don't fit into our calendars, and we can't predict exactly when the hoped-for result will come. But we're asked, as were the disciples, to trust that even if it feels as though he's absent, Jesus is with us—and he does fulfill his promises. He sent the Spirit as promised, and he promises us life in abundance.

Luke's Gospel reports that the disciples returned from the Ascension "with great joy" as they awaited the Spirit. Instead of feeling anxious in our own in-between moments, can we learn from the disciples'? Can we live with joy as we put our full trust in Jesus?
