Thank you to all CWL members who donated their time, talent and treasures to the 2014 Regina Diocesan Convention that was held at St. George's. Thanks to all those who were able to attend – our council was represented by 22 members and held the distinction of having the most members in attendance!! It was a very successful convention and we can be proud of our efforts – it was second to none.

A special thank you to Father Joy for his constant support and for attending and also making our guest priests feel so welcome.

Thanks also to Carol Marit and Denise Broda for their part in making our Mass on Sunday so joyful with their music.

Thank you to St. George's Parish for allowing us to host this convention in our church and parish hall.

Thanks also to Rita and her crews for supplying us with tasty and nourishing meals.

Thanks to Ken for all of his help in cleaning, setting up, taking down and generally being available when we needed him.

Thank you to Paul and Angele for their help throughout the evening – it was appreciated.

Thank you to anyone else in our parish who assisted our efforts in any way – we may not even be aware of it???

We appreciate all of you! God bless.....

Is there more than one kind of conversion?

My priest keeps talking about the need for Catholics to "deepen our conversion." I'm already Catholic. What else is there to convert to?

Many times we think of conversion as something that happens only when someone joins the Catholic Church. But the word conversion has more than one meaning. As used by your priest, it means to enter more deeply into a life of faith. As Catholics, we are indeed called to continual conversion.

I have a non-Catholic friend who has the date she accepted Christ on her Bible. I could put January 8, 1962, on my Bible because that's the date of my baptism, the day I was saved. At baptism I received the grace to convert daily when I am old enough to do so on my own.

But my conversion isn't something that happened once in the past. It wasn't the last sacrament I received. It was the first sacrament I received as I began my journey of faith. We deepen our faith and continue our conversion as we live the sacramental life of the Church.

This is seen most clearly through the sacraments of Eucharist and penance. Eucharist is something Catholics participate in weekly, and most Catholics take part in the sacrament of penance at least once a year.

Why? Because we need to deepen our conversion.

Good News!

May 18, 2014

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (A)

Acts 6:1-7 / 1 Pt 2:4-9 / Jn 14:1-12

When the planes flew into New York's twin towers on that fateful Tuesday in September 2001, I had just arrived early to set up for a meeting of campus ministers. I had caught the first account on the car radio. "Are you listening to this?" I asked a colleague. She hadn't heard the news, but my boss came down from his apartment upstairs and said quietly, "I have it on TV." I couldn't think of anything to say except, "Show it to me; can I see it?"

We went upstairs and watched as long as we could before our colleagues arrived, and we talked and listened and then went into Mass to pray for the lives lost and for the future of our world.

"Show me," we say, when things seems impossible to imagine. "Show me," we say when a child comes in wide-eyed wonder with a treasure she has just found. "Show me," Philip said, because he couldn't imagine the God-Father that Jesus was speaking about. He expected some grand sign—an earthquake, a thunderstorm, or any of the ways the presence of God was depicted in the Old Testament.

What he did not expect was that Jesus, who was standing right in front of him, was God himself. "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

We often miss the evidence that God is with us. It may be something as simple as the beauty of creation or the outpouring of love and support the world gave to the people of New York that long-ago day.

Let us pray that we see his presence in our midst this week—and always.
