OptionS Pregnancy Campaigns

The 2015 OptionS Pregnancy campaigns run from Mother's Day, May 10, 2015 to Father's Day June 21, 2015.

All funds raised go to the OptionS Pregnancy Center which provides a place where woman can come and not be judged for being in an unplanned pregnancy. The Center strives to let the woman know she is valued and cared about no matter what her choice. At OptionS they have found that a woman can make a better decision for herself and her baby when she realizes her self-worth. The outreach program provides services to women in southern Saskatchewan and Regina area.

Your financial contribution through our 2 campaigns will continue to help us reach the lives of women in Southern Saskatchewan with truth, compassion, and informed choices about their pregnancies.

The 24 Hour Support Line:
306-757-3344

Services are free to clients. The Centre is a non-profit organization.

Bouncing Baby Bottle Campaign

Please pick up your baby bottle for collecting money after Mass.

Bouncing Baby Shower

New and gently used items for newborn to 2 years old are appreciated.

Please place your baby items in the bassinette at the back of the church. Thank you for Your Continued Support!

Hosted by the CWL.

Note: These campaigns will be extended to the end of June.

TRINITY SUNDAY (B)

Dt 4:32-34, 39-40 / Rom 8:14-17 / Mt 28:16-20

When I was a young girl, I used to imagine I was adopted. This had nothing to do with loving my parents and family, which I did. I think it was one of the many steps in dealing with the life questions, "Who am I" and "Who do I belong to?"

Later in my life, I met people who were actually adopted, and one said the experience of being adopted gave him a much clearer sense of belonging than I knew. "Someone chose me," he said. "A family wanted me to belong to them and they wanted to belong to me."

Whenever I read today's section of Paul's Letter to the Romans, I remember my friend and my own wondering. The questions of who we are and whose we are don't go away as we get into adulthood. New schools, new jobs, and new family situations bring those questions into our minds, sometimes with a force that surprises us.

There are times we feel as if we have lost ourselves and lost our way. On other occasions, we might feel alone. When those moments come, all we can do is trust that someone does love us and calls us to be our best selves.

In his letter, Paul reminds us who we are—the adopted children of God—and in the process he also reminds us whose we are. We belong to God, and we are grounded in this reality by our baptism in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

God, in his being, is a love relationship. Is it any wonder that our belonging grounds us in the dark times and gives us joy in the others. Is there anything else we need to know?
