

*CWL are supporting the Moose Jaw Transition House
They are currently in need of full size hygiene items, such as shampoos, conditioners, body wash, etc. and adult toothbrushes.
Household and kitchen starter kits are essentially any items that a woman would need when moving into a home and has nothing.
These are items such as spices, flour, sugar, baking soda, cleaning supplies (broom, dishsoap, windex, etc.) tea towels and dish clothes, coffee, tea, toilet paper, measuring cups, rolling pin, can opener, etc.
A laundry basket placed in the entrance of the church for donations.
Thank you*

Thought for the Month

Forgiving hurts and healing our memories of these hurts is difficult, and yet living with anger is a kind of hell. Paul exhorted the Colossians: "Bear with one another; forgive each other if one of you has a complaint against another. The Lord has forgiven you; now you must do the same."

We sin against love constantly, but God forgives us each time.

Let us take a moment to forgive in our heart and mind one or two people who have hurt us. May we resolve to forgive these hurts in fact as well as in intention.

We offer this prayer in the name of Jesus, Prince of Peace and source of all reconciliation. Amen.

Pastoral Reflection: Feast of All Souls (John 12,23-28.32-33)

Death Connect Us To Life

An old saying goes, "As we treat the dead, we treat the living." While the funeral industry has become big business in the country, it is built upon the way our society honors its dead. And we do honor our dead with services, eulogies, and memorials. We treat our deceased as missing, yet still connected to us in some way.

Christianity adds to this sentiment with one insight. We are still connected with our departed, because we are one in Christ. He is the one who gathered everyone to him in this death. And in his resurrection.

John's gospel can be difficult to understand, but can lead to brilliant flashes of insight. In this gospel, Jesus spoke of his death as the point that united all humanity with God. In his gospel, John used opposing images of life and death. He also turned these images upside down to make a point. Death led to life; here death was used in a literal sense and as a metaphor for self-giving ("dying to self"). In Christ, the meaning of death was used in both senses; his literal death was his death to the self for the good of others. The farming analogy of the seed painted this point beautifully [24]. Christ's death and resurrection became the example and the power for our self-giving [25].

All Souls Day gives us a chance to reflect on God's love and on the way we view death. Nothing will separate us from God's love. Death (both symbolically in our self giving and literally) is the door to God's love. In God's love we are alive (both figuratively and literally). In Christ, we are all truly connected.
