On November 11th, Canadians pause in silence to remember those who died in war, and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day to pray for peace, and to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community, and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world. This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes (Mt. 5:1-12).
Loving Father, have mercy on your people, and open our hearts to peace and love. Reward all who have died for their country, and grant that Canada and all nations may continue to work for peace and justice. Bless us in our service, and help us to follow Jesus Christ, who is our Saviour and Lord forever and ever. Amen !

Giving Without Counting the Cost

The Hebrew almána (widow) refers to a married woman whose husband has died, and who has remained unmarried. In the New Testament the word used is the Greek chera.

Other terms associated with "widow" in the Bible shed light on both her personal experience and her social plight. Weeping, mourning, and desolation describe her personal experience after the loss of her spouse. Poverty and indebtedness describe her financial situation. With no one to stand for her legal rights, as in the case of a widow left with small children, the widow is in an extremely vulnerable economic situation. Hence, she is frequently placed alongside orphans and the landless immigrants, representatives of the poorest of the poor.

Legislation provides some social security for the widow. She is permitted to glean the fields and the vineyards during the harvest. Tithes are shared with her. Provision is to be made for her at the main religious feasts. The measure by which a ruler in Israel is to be judged as good is whether the powerless ones like the widows are cared for.

The widow - whose value is found in her "being" and not in "doing" - has God, above all, as her protector and benefactor. God manifests his special care for the powerless. No wonder, during his ministry, Jesus who comes to reveal the Father, exemplifies a special care and compassion for widows.
