Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: November 17th

Today's readings paint a somewhat frightening picture of the end of time. But the Gospel ends with the assurance to faithful stewards that those who persevere will be saved.

Operation Christmas Child Boxes by Sunday, November 17th.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of LAURIE LENNOX and HELEN FARWELL, remembering also their family and friends. May God grant unto them eternal rest, And let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

Making Advent Wreaths and Nativity Figures with the CWL

All children of the parish and their parents are invited to join us for a light lunch and to make Advent wreaths and Nativity Figures (Mary, Joseph and Baby Jesus) on Dec. 1 the First Sunday of Advent. We are trying something different this year so come and see. Please sign up on the sheet provided in the church entrance or call Lynn Rogers at 354-7754 and leave a message. We need to know numbers in order to provide adequate lunch and have adequate supplies. Hope to see you there.

CWL Members and All
Ladies of the Parish:

Ladies, have you ever wanted to belong to a group of women who are dedicated to the preservation of Christian family life; who believe in the sanctity of life from conception to natural death; who reach out to women in other lands; who meet with the federal government on a yearly basis to present and discuss resolutions; and who have as their main focus a spirituality centred in prayer? If so, the Catholic Women’s League is for you! Talk to a member and learn how you can become

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

Mal 3:19-20a / 2 Thes 3:7-12 / Lk 21:5-19

Jesus seems to have a thing about hair. In Luke 12, he claims that every hair on our heads is counted. For some people, that's a lot of counting. And in today's Gospel, Jesus promises that not a hair on the head of the faithful will be destroyed. This detailed knowledge of something so personal suggests a very intimate relationship between Jesus and us—at least from Jesus' end. It's apparent that Jesus knows us very, very well.

And while we worry about invasions of our privacy by family, neighbors, or the government, Jesus indicates in the Gospel that our intimate relationship with God benefits us immensely—if we partake in the intimacy.

Every year, as the Church year draws to a close, Jesus speaks about the end times. His words can be quite startling. But Jesus instructs his followers not to fear. What we often miss in these end-times readings is the hope. Jesus speaks about how he'll be with us through any trials or tribulations; he'll protect us down to the hairs on our heads. The first reading from Malachi speaks of the "sun of justice," which will "arise with healing in its wings."

Healing. Protection. Salvation. This is what God seeks for his faithful people at the end of the world.

And all God asks in return is for us to be those faithful people—to embrace the intimate relationship Jesus initiated.

As we wind down another Church year and look toward Advent, how deeply have we come to know Jesus this year? How can we better nurture that relationship in the next year so we can be ready for God's salvation when it appears?
