Pastoral Reflection: 33rd Sunday Gospel - Luke 21, 5-19 Appearances

Have you ever been fooled by appearances? I have (plenty of times). What seems lasting is not. What seems sure is uncertain. . Media marketing reveals the masses prefer to watch attractive people who report the news with flashy computer graphics. Appearances are as important as content. In some cases, appearances confuse content. We might look at our world and presume everything will carry on, only to see our world turned upside down. What gets us through the uncertain times? Jesus gives us the answer: faith.

Why are we fooled by appearances? Why are we lulled into complacency by the calm before the storm? Why are we tempted to give up when the world finally comes crashing down around our ears? Focused upon the end of the world, Jesus addressed these questions in this Sunday Gospel.

The challenge Jesus put before us is clear vision. Can we see beyond the crises of life and nation? Can our faith help us to withstand the challenges of these uncertain times? With God's help, we can.

You are encouraged to offer your weekday Mass on Wednesday, November 20, 2019 for the intentions of Persecuted Christians around the world.

We pray for the repose of the soul of GENY MILLAR, whose funeral took place at St. George's Church on Friday, Nov 15th.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
