ANNUAL APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION :

"Amen, I say to you; today you will be with me in Paradise." Are those not the words we all aspire to hear? Jesus reminds us throughout Holy Scripture that we must keep our Christian life focus on two points: Jesus himself, and that our lives lead to Eternity. It is these thrusts that should make us lead lives of gratitude and thanksgiving to God.

This Sunday is traditionally called Christ the King. Yes, we recognize Jesus' Kingship over all the earth and all its peoples, but the Gospel points to the part of His dominion that cannot be matched by anyone else: He rules over death as well as over life. St. Catherine of Siena once said, "All the way to heaven is heaven, because Jesus said, 'I am the way.'"

As we prepare for Advent, which begins next weekend, and as we end our liturgical year this week, we need to dedicate ourselves anew to being good stewards of all that the Lord, Christ our King, has blessed us with and to share those gifts as God's children. We also join with the forgiven thief who was crucified next to Jesus and place our total trust in God. While we attempt to be disciples of the Lord, we need to share what we have – time, talents and treasure in every opportunity the Lord gives us, no matter how small our best effort. In sharing our gifts with the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, we silently utter "Thank you, God" and "Lord, remember me."

Christ the King Sunday: November 20th

Today we celebrate Christ the King and are reminded that all was created through Him and for Him. Does my stewardship of the blessings entrusted to me give evidence that Christ is Lord of my life?

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King) brings the liturgical year to a close. It is like New Year's Eve, with a new liturgical year beginning next Sunday with the 1st Sunday of Advent.

The CWL Christmas Social will be held on Thursday, December 1. Mass will be at 6:00 p.m. followed by a catered supper and fellowship. Guests are welcome. There is a sign-up sheet in the entrance of the church.

CWL Christmas Social cost will be $20. Please pay either Maureen Beauchesne or Lynn Rogers after Mass on Sunday, Nov. 20 or Nov. 27 OR if you miss these opportunities and have signed up, please note that you can still pay on Dec. 1, but if you are unable to come and do not let one of us know by Nov. 29th, you will be expected to pay. In the past we have had to pay for some who have signed up and then not come. We understand that sometimes things happen that make it impossible to attend but at the same time once we have committed numbers to the caterer, we are expected to pay for that number. Thank you for your understanding.
