Christ the King Sunday: November 24th

Today we celebrate Christ the King and are reminded that all was created through Him and for Him. Does my stewardship of the blessings entrusted to me give evidence that Christ is Lord of my life?

We would like to thank our parishioners for all their donations be it money, food or time for the Fowl Supper. We served 609 people which includes the take outs and our profit was $7010.42. Pat yourselves on the back for a job well done. () () () () ()

Making Advent Wreaths and Nativity Figures with the CWL

All children of the parish and their parents are invited to join us for a light lunch and to make Advent wreaths and Nativity Figures (Mary, Joseph and Baby Jesus) on Dec. 1 the First Sunday of Advent. We are trying something different this year so come and see. Please sign up on the sheet provided in the church entrance or call Lynn Rogers at 354-7754 and leave a message. We need to know numbers in order to provide adequate lunch and have adequate supplies. Hope to see you there.

CWL Members and All

Ladies of the Parish:

Did you know that the Catholic Women's League of Canada is "rooted in gospel values calling members to holiness through service to the people of God"? Do you think that your gifts and talents would contribute to bringing this statement to life? We would be pleased if all Catholic women of the parish would join us in our work, "for God and Canada". Interested? Call Irene Montgomery @ 642-4951, Debbie Buztynski at 642-4423, Pat Piche @ 642-3755, or Paulette Lapaire @ 642-4209.

WANTED FOR PARISH OFFICE :

Large size fireproof safe in good working/locking order. Please contact parish office / Fr. Joy 306-642-4439.

The parish has received the magazines, the WORD among us, for Dec, for Advent. Please take one and use it in your Advent as you contemplate the story of Christmas this year.

Sacrament Enrollment

There will be a Confirmation/First Eucharist Organizational Meeting Tuesday, December 3 @ 7:00 pm in the Church basement. The parents of all Catholic children taking RC Christian Ethics in grades 2 & 3 have been contacted about this meeting.

Do you know any children grades 2, 3 or older that live in our parish/area that may have been missed in the contacts mailings?

If you know of any child that has been missed, please ask their parents to contact Father Joy or Sue Robinson.

Please pick up / purchase your NEW Missals for YEAR A, Youth Missals and calendars; French calendars to come. All items $6.00 each.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

2 Sm 5:1-3 / Col 1:12-20 / Lk 23:35-43

The following retelling of the crucifixion from the viewpoint of a criminal crucified with Jesus is based on Luke 23.

Someone once said we should say things like “I’m sorry” and “thank you” and “I love you” before we die—things that will ensure all is well. I’m not sure which category my words to Jesus fell into; heck, I’m not sure why I spoke up at all. I guess the criminal who was mocking Jesus irritated me. How could he challenge an innocent man? I’d overheard Jesus’ trial—he’d done nothing wrong. But Jesus didn’t get angry; he merely looked sad.

I didn’t know much about Jesus. I’d heard about his healing, his miracles, his life-changing words. If I’d known him before the cross, maybe my life would have turned out differently.

There was so much noise—so much jeering and mocking. I don’t know where I got the courage to speak, and I wasn’t sure what to say. I just wanted one quiet moment with this holy man. Was he the Son of God? Was he a king? I didn’t know for sure, but I wanted to believe—so I whispered quietly, “Remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

His response blew me away—“Today you will be with me in Paradise.” Paradise? Me? Lowly, evil, crucified me? Then I caught his eye—and I saw love. And peace like I’d never known before. Yes, he was a king—a crucified king. Yes, I would be with him in Paradise. And yes, as I took my last breaths, all was indeed well.

Thank you for the privilege of breaking open the Word with you each week. I’ve appreciated your comments and insights. May you too know the deep peace only the Lord can give. God bless!
