Camp Lemieux really needs as much help as we can muster to clean up and prepare the camp for winter. We will be having a general clean-up of buildings and grounds beginning at 9:00 am on Saturday, October 22, 2011. Lunch will be provided. It will be a fantastic chance for fellowship as well as for building and renewing old friendships. If you can come out and maybe even bring along some friends and family to help for even a couple of hours please call Val at the Archdiocesan Regional Office at 773-0026 and let us know (leave a message if we miss your call please). We look forward to seeing you. *****

Good News!

October 2, 2011

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Is 5:1-7 / Phil 4:6-9 / Mt 21:33-43

Several summers ago I spent one day—not nearly enough time for this wine lover—in Napa Valley. I toured a winery and was fascinated by the detailed attention the grapes received during harvest. Each grape is individually hand-picked at a temperature and time conducive to producing the most succulent wine. Such tender handiwork!

The vineyard stories that dominate today's readings reveal the owners' similar attentive care in establishing and tending their vines. Unfortunately, neither story ends with someone peacefully sipping a glass of Cabernet at sunset. Both reveal a betrayal of the tender care of the owner, who represents God the Father.

Grapes grow wild in the Isaiah reading. In the Gospel, the hired tenants murder the owner's servants and then—foreshadowing Jesus' death—the owner's son. Destruction is left in what was so tenderly built, pruned, and nurtured.

It isn't difficult to connect these stories with our lives. We know God has tenderly cared for, nurtured, and provided for us. We need only look at our many material gifts and incredible people he has blessed us with. God has never stopped "handpicking" us with incredible tenderness.

But we're often the wild grapes or the rebellious tenants. We reject God's love by being ungrateful for his numerous gifts, instead claiming we deserve more. We sin by our disrespect—even hatred—of others who are his beloved children. We abuse the gift of God's creation by ignoring environmental needs and pursuing our own gains.

Today's readings challenge us to remember the vineyard owner's caring hand and God's tender love. Recalling God's ongoing goodness can help us break our sinful patterns and respond gratefully to him.
