Camp Lemieux really needs as much help as we can muster to clean up and prepare the camp for winter. We will be having a general clean-up of buildings and grounds beginning at 9:00 am on Saturday, October 22, 2011. Lunch will be provided. It will be a fantastic chance for fellowship as well as for building and renewing old friendships. If you can come out and maybe even bring along some friends and family to help for even a couple of hours please call Val at the Archdiocesan Regional Office at 773-0026 and let us know (leave a message if we miss your call please). We look forward to seeing you.

FOCUS ON OUR FUTURE: Annual Appeal
 We are all stewards – managers of the gifts God has bestowed upon us. Our challenge as Christians is to make good use of those gifts – our time, talents and our material treasures. As good stewards we give in proportion to the goodness God has shown us. Commitment to the Future challenges us to live the reality of the stewardship and recognize that we are an important part of building up the Kingdom of God. Only by committing to the future is it effective.

PLEASE KEEP YOUR PINK COPY WHEN DONATING FUNDS & THANK YOU!

Please pray for Kyle Lloyd BATTY, son of Jeffrey & Tanis Batty (Paulhus), who was baptized at St. Louis Church in Mossbank on Oct. 2 / 11. May the grace of the Holy Spirit help him and his family to grow in holiness & faith.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY TO ALL !

World Mission Sunday is on October 23rd this year. This is a world wide collection for the missionary church that provides emergency aid when disasters strike, cares for refugees in war torn nations, and provides rural health clinics and transportation for priests, catechists, religious and lay pastoral workers. It provides financial support for the daily needs of all missionaries. Please pray for the missions and be generous on World Mission Sunday.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Is 25:6-10a / Phil 4:12-14, 19-20 / Mt 22:1-14 or 22:1-10

Sometimes Jesus' words can seem quite vague to us; at other times, he makes his point with extreme clarity. The latter is the case today. For the past three Sundays, Jesus has used parables to indict the religious leaders for their self-righteousness, their assumption of God's favor, and their rejection of Jesus. Today he compares them to wedding guests who decline their invitation to attend. Some must see to more important matters; others believe they needn't attend because they're already in the host's good graces.

The story doesn't end well for them, and outsiders accept the invitations. Jesus indicates the religious leaders can't slide by in the Father's eyes—salvation is guaranteed to no one, especially not to those who reject the Father's invitation.

We might too easily dismiss this story as one that doesn't apply to us. We wouldn't reject an invitation to God's banquet. Yet don't we often put other responsibilities and activities before our relationship with God? Don't we sometimes take God's love for granted? "God can't possibly expect us to live as Christians 24/7." "That little lie I told isn't so bad." "God always forgives us, right? We don't have to try that hard."

If those thoughts sound familiar, we have more in common with the invited wedding guests than we thought. Our response to God's invitation should be an ongoing, daily response rather than one given only when it's convenient. We have important responsibilities every day, but we can't accomplish any of them without God—a truth Saint Paul echoed in our second reading: "I have the strength for everything through him who empowers me." With these words first on our lips, we can repondez, s'il vous plaît (RSVP), to God's invitation with a resounding yes—and renewed commitment and conviction.
