

Naam went down
and washed himself seven times in the river Jordan and became CLEAN

We groan while we wait for the redemption of our bodies.

ANNUAL APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION :

The Greek philosopher Epicurus wrote, "Do not spoil what you have by desiring what you have not; remember that what you now have was once among the things you only hoped for."

This quote follows upon the wisdom that is displayed in today's readings. In the Gospel from Luke, for example, Jesus cures 10 lepers. They have been given something – health – which they once only hoped for. Yet only one of them, a Samaritan as a matter of fact, returns to the Lord to thank Him. Jesus says "Where are the other nine?"

A grateful heart focuses on one's gifts, on ones' many blessings, not on what one may not have, or what one may have been denied. In gratitude, not only do we need to concentrate on those gifts, but we need to take the time to thank God and others who may have provided us those gifts. When was the last time you actually thanked your parents for the gift of life? When did you last thank your spouse for all that he or she may have done for you? When did you last thank God in prayer? Have we considered giving for a cause, like the Archbishop's annual appeal as a way of thanking God for His many blessings to us?

Catholic encyclopedias say that there are five kinds of prayer – adoration, contrition, love, petition, and thanksgiving. Among these prayers, for a thankful heart, thanksgiving is foremost. Source: [www.catholicsteward.com – Printed with permission]

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time: October 9th Jesus healed ten lepers in today's Gospel. Only one (ten percent) came back to say thank you. I, too, have received many blessings from the Lord - indeed, all I am and all I have is gift! How and how often have I remembered to thank Him?

Taste & See Breakfast Thank You

Thank you to all the CWL members who were so generous with their time in helping set up and decorate for the Taste & See Breakfast, and to those who brought decorations – the hall looked beautiful! Thanks to all who brought breakfast items – the meal was delicious! Thanks to those who worked at the Breakfast in any way to help make it a success. Thanks to the St. George Parish for the use of the hall and for all those who attended. And thank you to Alex and Alyssa Kwasnicki and their friend for a great clean-up job! We appreciate it all very much. God bless you.
