ANNUAL APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION :

Many have referred to St. Paul as "The Persistent Apostle." Thus, Paul serves as a great example and model for what is laid out for us in all the readings for this 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Persistence and its importance to people of faith is an intricate part of each of the readings.

The conversion of Paul is recounted six times in scripture – three times in the Acts of the Apostles and three times by Paul himself in his letters. The intensity and the persistence of Paul's faith lead us to see how important persistence is to live as disciples of Christ.

From the persistence of Moses in the first reading from Exodus, to Paul's urging us to "be persistent" in his letter to Timothy, to the Parable of the Persistent Widow in the Gospel from Luke, we are advised that we should always pray and never give up, work for good even when it seems nothing's changing, give even if our giving is too little to be significant. The turtle wins the race in the 'Turtle and the Hare', very slow in his little steps, but persistently moving forward without let up towards the finish line. No matter how little we can afford to share in the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, but done lovingly and consistently, we are confident that God will multiply it with overflowing for His purpose.

Perseverance is a hallmark of a disciple of Christ. Good Christians know that living in that way is not always easy and comfortable. Yet with the grace of God, the strength to both live that way and to fulfill Jesus' call to carry our lives as disciples of Christ is both possible and a path to great joy and happiness.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time: October 16th

Today's theme is perseverance - Moses keeping his hands upraised throughout the battle, Paul urging Timothy to stay with the task of preaching and teaching, and the widow appealing to the corrupt judge. To be faithful stewards of God's gifts, we, too, must persevere in the roles to which we are called.

Please be as generous as possible to the collection for the Propagation of the Faith, for more than 1200 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Pacific Islands & some of our Canadian dioceses that depend on the World Mission collection.

Marriage

Couperthwaite and Kimberly

Rust who were married at St. George's on Sat. Oct. 8th.

May the grace offered in the sacrament of marriage help them to live authentically the love of Christ for His Church.

A reflection on prayer :

I pray because I am a Christian;

And to do what a Christian must do, I need help.

I pray because there is confusion in my life;

And to do what is right, I need light.

I pray because I must make decisions;

But the choices are not always clear,

So I need guidance.

I pray because I have doubts;

And to keep growing in my faith, I need help.
