COMMITMENT TO THE FUTURE

The needs are evident and they have been for many years – religious education of our young people, faith formation of adults, development of small faith-sharing groups, support for various ministries such as liturgy, social justice, etc. These needs are real. Our Commitment to the Future makes it possible to meet these needs. Your support in prayer and your sacrificial gift will make it possible to provide these services, and more importantly, to bring the message of the Gospel to all people. When people care – they share.

Please read THE ARCH page 7 about this year's Appeal. It's a 4-month campaign; all funds to be in by Dec. 31st. Tax receipts will be issued from the Parish early 2011. Rebates will be paid out as of Dec. 31st.

Please consider signing the petition at back of church
from the Archdiocese/Regina Pro-Life Association, about child pornography/child sexual abuse
materials.

STEWARDSHIP Bulletin Bits - on Sunday Readings :

October 17 : Today's theme is perseverance – Moses keeping his hands upraised throughout the battle, Paul urging Timothy to stay with the task of preaching and teaching, and the widow appealing to the corrupt judge. To be faithful stewards of God's gifts, we, too, must persevere in the roles to which we are called.

October 24 : Both the first reading and today's psalm say clearly that the Lord hears the cry of the poor. Have I been given the gifts –of time or money or abilities- to be the means by which God answers their need ?

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ex 17:8–13 / 2 Tm 3:14—4:2 / Lk 18:1–8

The New Testament is likely the only place most of us ever meet Samaritans. We may have to remind ourselves of their first-century situation.

We're used to hearing Samaritan as part of the phrase Good Samaritan. We forget that this phrase jarred the deepest prejudices of the original hearers of Christ's famous parable. No good was expected from Samaritans. Saying "Good Samaritan" was like saying "Good Robber." As the parable started, some of Jesus' audience may have been thinking, "The people who put that injured man in the ditch were probably Samaritans." Jesus tells the story to make the point that help may come where you least expect it, maybe even from people you distrust or dislike.

After the healing of ten lepers, only a Samaritan—"this foreigner"—returns to thank Jesus. In the story of the Good Samaritan, recognition, praise of God, and a role model for faith came where Jesus' audience least expected it—from people they distrusted and disliked.

Samaritans and Jews didn't get along in either Samaria or Galilee. It's interesting that Jesus heals a mixed group and that the town where the healing happens is between Samaria and Galilee. Leprosy had made outcasts of all of them, and they came together at some in-between place. From there they all asked Jesus for help. For some, healing meant a return to normal. For one, healing meant a new life, new eyes, a new way to see God's hand at work.

So is the point of the story to help us see our short-sightedness? There seem to be two other points. We are all in this together. God wants to heal all of us.

Who should be grateful? Maybe together the healed can find some new place where the old sicknesses are left behind.

NEW CANADIAN SAINT

Blessed André Bessette, founder of St. Joseph's Oratory in Montreal, will be canonized in Rome by Pope Benedict XVI on Oct. 17. He will be the first Canadian male officially recognized as a saint.

Prayer to obtain a special favour through the intercession of Saint Brother André

---

Saint Brother André,
we celebrate your presence among us.
Your loving friendship with Jesus,
Mary and Joseph
makes you a powerful intercessor
with God, our Father.

Compassion carries your words
straight to God's heart,
and your prayers are answered
and bring comfort and healing.

Through you, from our lips to God's ear,
our supplications are heard...

We ask to be made a part of God's work, alongside you,
in the spirit of prayer, compassion and humility.

Saint Brother André, pray for us.

Amen.
