▷ THEME : We must imitate Jesus, who came not to be served by others, but to serve them. Service and suffering go together like two rails of a train track.

▷ Let us remember in prayer the family and friends of the dearly departed, especially, Opal Feucht and Victor Bergeron. May the deceased rest in peace and may their families know the consolations of God.

▷ LAST CALL to please help with the fowl supper in whatever ways you can to make our BIG parish fundraiser a BIG success ! Thank you for all you do !

▷ YOUR parish is in need of committee members on both Parish Council and on Finance Council. This is very serious in order to keep our parish ALIVE and WELL! We invite you to come and talk to present members about the duties and details, for ANY information you may want to know, or to Fr. Dennis. More to follow on this.

Archbishop's Appeal. Our theme is Be Joyful in Hope. Parish

Goal is $ 18,435.00 : OCT 21: Today the gospel invites us to achieve greatness, not by material gain or influence or power over others, but by the awareness of our lowliness to which we depend on

God for everything. What we have are God's gifts and are meant to serve the needs of others. Only through service to others can we truly reach the greatness that the Kingdom of God requires. In giving to the Archdiocesan Appeal, we join the many souls in their best effort to reach the greatness of life which all are called to achieve.

Pastoral Reflection: 29th Sunday Gospel (Mark 10,35-45)

The Christian Leadership

A simple test of character is the question: "Why?" Why does the candidate seek the power a political position holds? Why does the actor seek fame in Hollywood or on Broadway? Why does the business person seek wealth or the climb up the corporate ladder? Why does the person of faith seek a position of ministry?

There is nothing intrinsically wrong with ambition in any of these fields. In fact, most people use ambition to better themselves and their surroundings. But the question must be asked: why do they seek? Do they want to wealth and fame and power for themselves alone? Or do they want to use these ambitions for the greater good? These were the questions Jesus asked his followers when the subject of ambition raised its head among the Apostles.

God calls all in the Church to serve each other. For the Church shares its spiritual goods with its members. We, the Church, are one in faith, one in sacraments and worship, one in shared charisms, one in solidarity and charity. Our faith, our worship, the diversity of our spiritual gifts and talents, and the love we share all support one end, unity with Christ.

The Communion of Saints embodies the notion that all who are in Christ serve one another in love. True Christian leaders bring the sacred communion to life. For their ambition is not to glorify themselves but to evangelize. True Christian leaders bring others to Christ. Questions of fame, power, or gold are, at best, secondary.

Jesus fits the waiter/servant role perfectly. He leads by serving us; even though he seems distant, he is ever present to help. As Christians, we are to lead others in the same way, with tact and quiet guidance, by moral example and moral commitment. Such leadership leads to the cross. But it also leads to resurrection. dcrfr

TODAY, on World Mission Sunday, we are invited to celebrate our mission's vocation, to pray for the people who are actively engaged in mission, and to generously contribute to our worldwide mission solidarity fund through the special collection. Your gift on this day helps: people in remote villages, towns and cities, through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests; children, the elderly, refugees, the sick, and orphans through the services of religious Sisters and Brothers; to bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family; catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that ONLY Christ can give. Please offer your prayers for the work of the Church in the missions today and be as generous as you can on World Mission Sunday.
