ANNUAL APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION :

In Jesus' Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector, the Pharisee exhibits all the good and respectable qualities. The Tax Collector is just the opposite, both a traitor of his people and a greedy cheat who takes more than his due. But God accepts the prayer of the Tax Collector and not the Pharisee's. Why? Because the Pharisee is busy praising his own goodness and is concerned only about his opinion of himself. The Tax Collector, knowing what sort of person he is, asks God for mercy and forgiveness.

In the reading from 2 Timothy, St. Paul also mentions some of his sufferings and declares, "I have kept the faith." But it's clear that he knows that it's only through the strength of God that provided that he was able to do this, not his own strength.

Of course, we're called to reject sin, but these readings can remind us that Jesus died to make us holy, not respectable, and he taught, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Our discipleship of the Lord, like sharing our resources with the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, is a grateful response to God's generosity to us, not an attempt to impress others – or ourselves.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time: October 23rd

Both the first reading and today's psalm say clearly that the Lord hears the cry of the poor. Have I been given the gifts - of time or money or abilities - to be the means by which God answers their need?

.....

Today, for World Mission Sunday, along with Catholics throughout the world, we are all called to offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Propagation of the Faith, for the worldwide mission of Jesus.

Your gift on World Mission Sunday helps :

- People in remote villages, towns and cities through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests.
- Children, the elderly, refugees, the sick and orphans through the service of Religious Sisters and Brothers.
- To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family.
- Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer prayers for the work of the Church in the missions today - the Pacific Islands, Latin America, Africa and Asia.

And please be as generous as you can today, for World Mission Sunday.

Negative Words Have Power Too

PART 1 of 2:

But while positive words affect your future, so do negative ones.

I once worked with a guy in a ministry many, many years ago. Every once in a while, I'd get a crazy idea and I'd say, "I have a new proposal." Even before I could expound on my idea, this man would be shaking his head. "That won't work," he'd say.

His name was Joseph, and because everyone knew he was that kind of a guy, we called him Negative Joseph.

It was so difficult to work with him. One time, everyone liked my proposal except Negative Joseph. The team implemented my proposal and it was a great success. We all wondered what negative Joseph had to say.

In our next meeting, everyone was raving about the successful project. Joseph was there with his usual frown and he said, "That won't last. I tell you, you can't sustain it."

You know what happened? The project continued and became even more successful. We wondered what Joseph would say this time.

At our next meeting, he was there, still with his usual frown. He said, "You know, Dennis, you're becoming proud. You've become so different."

I couldn't believe how negative this person was.

One of the things I realized is if you say you can't do it, you're absolutely right. You cannot do it!
