Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: September 6th

The good steward must not show favoritism. The rich may have many material gifts to share, but St. James reminds us in the second reading that God has chosen the world's poor to be rich in faith and inheritors of God's kingdom.

Saturday September 12,
2015: St. George's Parish
Theme: Crisis of Faith: Hope
for Families Workshop:
9:00AM - Registration
$5.00 (Coffee and Goodies)
12:00 Noon - 1:00PM: Lunch
Windup 3:00PM

✧ This workshop is not merely about presenting Christian (Catholic) values as a set of regulations but is about helping us enjoy the joys that the House of the Father offers through a patient accompaniment of all people. We would see that the Church is not a customs house but rather a faith environment that offers people the respite they need as they find themselves in difficult pastoral situations.

✧ We shall be exploring the triadic movement of the Domestic Church, the Particular Church and the Universal Church in helping us respond to those who find themselves in need today. People often misunderstand the Catholic faith by seeing it as a set of doctrinal mores (Doctrines). But it is the vehicle to benefiting from the Mission of Christ. The high point of which is the Sunday Eucharist when the God family; the Church sits at table with the Lord. He gives himself to all of us, pilgrims through history towards the goal of the final encounter when "Christ is all and in all."
