Thank you so much for participating in our 2018 Baby Bottle Campaign! We had a great year and we could not have had such a successful fundraiser without your dedication to helping Options Pregnancy Center, our clients, and their babies.

This year our church raised $ 563.60, and the grand total with all participating churches combined is $ 35,733.83. We can't thank you enough for praying and financially investing into Options Pregnancy Center.

You have done a lot to help with this important fundraiser, we appreciate you. God bless your day.

We will continue with two-week bulletins; please remember this when giving info / ads for the bulletin, and thanks !

PRAYER:

Lord, today's Scripture message is one that we have heard many times before but that we tend to forget or not appreciate.

Touch our ears and open them that we may hear that message in a new way.

Touch our tongues and loosen them that we may share this message with others.

Touch our hearts that we may let you use them to transform our world, as you let the Father use you to transform your world.

Pastoral Reflection: 23rd Sunday Gospel Mk 7.31-37

Shortcomings and Faith

We all have 'em. Shortcomings. They can be physical, emotional, moral, behavioral, or mental. Most of us have several shortcomings. Some of these shortcomings are real. Others are imagined (they're only "real" when we compare them to other people). No matter. We will obsess, deny, rationalize them. And we'll spend real money for relief from them. We'll do anything to alleviate them, to be free of them.

Sometimes we call these shortcomings our "demons." In the time of Jesus, the ancients equated many of these shortcomings to demonic possession. Jesus freed a man from a real shortcoming, a demon, but did more than heal him. He allowed the man to hear and speak the truth.

Sometimes our shortcomings are spiritual. We are people of faith, but our spiritual focus is upon the self. Many times we struggle between our immature "needs" and a real exercise in the Spirit's gifts. These shortcomings can lead us to discouragement ("church does not fulfill my needs anymore"). Or they can challenge us to grow. Through growth, we begin to listen and understand. Then, we can speak clearly. Our ears are no longer blocked. Our tongue is no longer held bound. Despite our shortcoming, Jesus will touch and call to us. And he will use these shortcomings to lead us to greater faith.
