Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: September 23rd

Today's second reading warns that a heart consumed with avarice and envy leads to jealousy, strife, conflicts, and disputes. A giving heart, in contrast, can sing instead with the psalmist, "Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness." See Psalm 54

Let us hold in prayer the family and friends of the dearly departed in our communities, especially: Gil Keck, Bob Fauser and Kyle Krauss ( grandson of Merv Krauss ). May all be comforted by Christ's tenderness.

The parish needs one or more sacristans, on a two-week rotation, not a hard job, not demanding, others will replace you when needed; you would set up for all Masses; at present, we have 3. Please consider and call Rose Delorme 642 – 5137

Our parish will begin a stewardship effort on October 14th, 2012.

Stewardship is based on the spiritual principles of the Old Testament and the teachings of Jesus. Stewardship is a way of thanking God for all the blessings we have received by returning to God a portion of our time, talent and treasure. Stewardship can change the spiritual lives of both individuals and the parish as a whole.
