Thank you for all of your support this past camper season! Just a quick note to let you know that we will be holding Camp Lemieux Fall Clean Up on Saturday October 1 starting at 9 am. For all those able to join us for blowing out the lines, raking leaves, pulling in the docks and winterizing the indoor facilities...many hands and many full vehicles of volunteers make light work...haha!

Please spread the word far and wide in bulletins, on websites/social media, with KofC & CWL and by personal invitation. Hope to see you there!

God bless & be God's, Jennifer Foley, Camp Lemieux Chairperson

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time: September 25th

The sin of the rich man in today's parable was not that he was rich, but that he failed to share his wealth with the beggar at his gate. He knew Lazarus, perhaps walked by him every time he came in or out, but did nothing to relieve his suffering. Is there a Lazarus in my life? What am I doing to help?

Learn to Say No Sometimes

"Can you bring a tiny package to my family in Manila?"

"No problem!" I said to the petite Filipina in front of me.

This happened many years ago in a mission trip in the United States when I still didn't know about the *BalikbayanPhrase Dictionary. In it, the term "tiny package" means "any object in the universe whose size is slightly smaller than planet earth".

When I arrived at the airport, her tiny package was waiting for me: the suitcase was bigger than my bag. "Sorry Father Dennis" she said sheepishly, stepping out of her suitcase's shadow, "I thought it was tiny. But it kept growing bigger and bigger and bigger..." "Wow. It's miraculous."

She then handed me an envelope "just in case you have excess baggage" and left me as quickly as a woman running away from a rapist. I opened it and discovered ten dollars in it. I hollered back at her, "Will this multiply miraculously too?"

When I checked-in her suitcase, true enough, the ticketing guy told me I needed to pay excess baggage. Holding the ten dollars with trembling fingers, I asked how much it would cost. When he showed the astronomical figure to me, I had a paranormal experience right there and then: I felt my soul leave my body for a few seconds. (This happened when I was still a poor missionary.) When I came about, I inquired as calmly as I could, "Does this price also include the purchase of the plane? Or do I get the plane and own all the pilots and stewardesses as well?"

That experience taught me a very important lesson in life: Learn to say no sometimes. I learned a very important principle: Saying "no" is really saying a bigger "yes" to what God wants me to do. Hey, there're a million things you can do.

But what does God want for your life? If you don't learn to say "no" to all the myriad of options life offers you, you won't be able to say "yes" to His specific mission for your life.

Question: Do you have excess baggage in your life? Learn to say no to excess baggage. Your yes depends on it.
